1 Poife your Firelocks!

1st. SEIZE the Firelock with your Right-Hand and turn the Lock outwards, keeping the Firelock perpendicular.

2d. Bring up the Firelock with a quick Motion from the Shoulder, and feize it with the Left-Hand just above the Lock, so that the little Finger may rest upon the Spring, and the Thumb lie upon the Stock: The Firelock must not be held too far from the Body, and the Left-Hand must be of an equal Height with the Eyes.

2 Cock your Firelocks!

1st. Turn the Barrel opposite to your Face, and place your Thumb upon the Cock, raising the Elbow square at this Motion.

2d. Cock your Firelock, by drawing your Elbow down, placing your Thumb upon the Breech-Pin, and the Fingers under the Guard.

3 Present!

1 Step back about six Inches to the Rear with the Right Foot, bringing the Left Toe to the Front; at the same Time the Butt-End of the Firelock must be brought to an equal Height with your Shoulder, placing the Left-Hand on the Swell, and the Fore-Finger of the Right-Hand before the Trigger, sinking the Muzzle a little.

No. of Motions.

Prime & Load 15 1st. COME smartly to the Recover, by springing the Firelock straight up with the Left Hand, turning the Barrel inwards, to the proper Height of the Recover; at the same Time that the Left-Hand springs the Firelock, the Right Hand is raised briskly from the Right Side, and seizes the Firelock a-cross the Breast, as it rises below the Cock, the Left Hand comes with a quick Motion from the Butt, and seizes the Firelock strong above the Lock, the little Finger of the Left Hand at the Spring of the Lock, the Left Hand at an equal Height with the Eyes, the Butt close to the Left Breast, but not pressed, the Firelock perpendicular opposite the Left Side of the Face.

2d. Bring the Firelock down with a brisk Motion to the Priming Position, the Left Hand holding the Firelock, as in priming; the Thumb of the Right Hand placed against the Face of the Steel, the Fingers clenched, and the Elbow a little turned out, that the Wrist may be clear of the Cock.

3d. Open the Pan, by throwing up the Steel with a strong Motion of the Right Arm, turning the Elbow in, and keeping the Firelock steady in the Left Hand.

- 14th and 15th. Shoulder!

N.B. The Motions of Recover and coming down to the Priming Position, and opening Pans, to be done in the usual Time.

The Motions of handling Cartridge, to shutting the Pans, to be done as quick as possible; when the Pans are shut, a small Pause is to be made, and cast about together; then the Loading Motions are to be done as quick as possible; but before the Rammer is return'd, another small Pause is to be made, counting One, Two, between each Motion, till the Firelock is Shouldered.

Explanations of the Position of each Rank in the Firings.

Words of Command

Front Rank.

Make ready!

SPRING the Firelock briskly to the Recover, keeping the Left Foot fast in this Motion; as soon as the Firelock is at the Recover, without any Stop sink the Body briskly without stooping forward, with a quick Motion down upon the Right Knee, the Butt-End of the Firelock at the same Time falls upon the Ground; the front Part of the Butt to be in a Line with the Heel of the Left Foot; as soon as the Butt comes to the Ground, the Firelock is to be cock'd, immediately seizing the Cock and Steel in the Right-Hand, the Firelock to be held firm in the Left Hand, about the Middle of that Part of the Firelock between the Lock and the Swell of the Stock; the Point of the Left Thumb to be close to the Swell pointing upwards.

As the Body is sinking, the Right Knee is to be thrown so far back as the Left Leg may be right up and down, the Right Foot to be thrown a little to the Right, the Body to be kept straight, the Head up, looking to the Right along the Rank, the same as if Shouldered; the Firelock to be upright, and Butt about four Inches to the Right of the Inside of the Left Foot.

Present!

Bring the Firelock briskly down to the Present, by extending the Left Arm to the full Length, with a strong Motion; at the same Time spring up the Butt by the Cock with the Right Hand, and raise up the Butt so high upon the Right Shoulder, that you may not be obliged to stoop too much with the Head, the Right Cheek to be close to the Butt, and the left Eye shut, and look along the Barrel, with the Right Eye from the Breach Pin to the Muzzle; keep the Left Elbow down in an easy Position, and stand as steady as possible; the Thumb of the Right Hand to remain in the Position as described in the third Explanation of the Manual.

Explanations.

Pull the Tricker as directed in the Manual, and as soon as the Piece is fired, give yourself a strong Spring upon your Left Leg, raising your Body briskly and straight up, keeping your Left Foot tall, and bringing the Right Heel close to the Left; at the same Time the Firelock is to be brought up to the priming Position, and half cocked immediately; a short Pause is to be made, then handle Cartridges and go on with the Loading Motions described in the Explanation of Prime and Load.

Center Rank.

SPRING the Firelock briskly to the Recover; as soon as the Left Hand seizes the Firelock above the Lock, the Right Elbow is to be nimbly raised a little, placing the Thumb of that Hand upon the Cock, the Fingers open by the Plate of the Lock, and as quick as possible force the Piece to the Cock, by dropping the Elbow, and forcing down the Cock with the Thumb, stepping at the same Time a moderate Pace, or two Feet, to the Right, keeping the Left Foot tall; as the Firelock is cocked, the Thumb is to fall below the Cock; the Right Hand seizing the Firelock close under the Cock firmly; the fore-Finger not to be before the Tricker: The Piece to be held in this Position perpendicular, opposite the Left Side of the Face, the Butt close to the Left Breast, but not pressed; the Body to be straight, and as full to the Front as possible; the Head kept up, looking to the Right of the Rank, that the Body and Firelock may not stoop forward, nor lean much out of the Rank.

Spring

Words of Command.

No. of Motions.

Explanations.

Present !

Spring the Firelock from the Body to Arms-length with a quick Motion, pressing down the Muzzle with the Left-Hand and spring up the Butt with the Right Hand, as in the foregoing Explanation of the Front Rank.

Fire!

As in Explanation Four in the Manual, with this Difference, that the Left Foot is to be brought up to the Right at the same Time that the Firelock is brought down to the priming Position.

The Loading Motions as in the Explanations of Priming and Loading, and at the last Motion of Shouldering, to spring to the Left again and cover the File Leaders.

Rear Rank.

Make ready!

RECOVER the Firelock and Cock as before directed for the Center Rank. As the Firelock is recovered and cocked, step briskly straight to the Right, with the Right Foot a full Pace, bring the Left Heel about six Inches before the Right Foot, the Body straight, and as square to the Front as possible.

As in Explanation of the Center Rank.

Fire!

As in Explanation of the Center Rank, and as the Firelock is coming down to the priming Position, the Left Foot is to be brought back to the Right, and at the last Motion of Shouldering, to spring to the Left again, and cover the File Leaders.

The Rear Ranks come to the Right-about; the Officers face to the Front, and Order their Arms, and the Serjeants their Halberds.

N. B. The Regiments sometimes march past the reviewing Officer, in companies by Fours.—This is so generally known and practised, that particular Directions are here unnecessary. When the Battalion is again form'd, the Major is to direct the General Salute as follows:

Fix your Bayonets!

Shoulder your Firelocks!

Present your Arms!

As soon as the Men come the Rest, the Drummers beat a March.

The Major then raising his Sword, and dropping the Point, gives the Signal for all the Officers to Salute together, and the Ensigns to drop the Colours.

Drummers face outwards.

Officers march through the Intervals on the Right of their respective Companies, nine Paces in the Rear.

The Colonel advances to the General.

The Serjeants march at the same Time with the Officers, those on the Flanks of the Battalion directly forward, followed by those in the Rear, till they have passed the Line where the General stands ; they then face to the Right and Left inwards, and marching towards each other, divide the Length of the Front equally between them.

The youngest Serjeant of Grenadiers having faced to the Right, marches to the Front, and dressing in a Line with the other Serjeants, keeps opposite the Center of his own Company ; the other two Serjeants of Grenadiers post themselves one on the Right of the Front, and the other on the Right of the Rear Rank of their own Company.

The Drummers march straight out ; when they have passed the Line where the Major stands, they face inwards and take Post behind him, keeping faced to the Center till the next Flam.

The Officers come to the Right-about ; Serjeants and Drummers face, and front the Battalion.

The Officers and Serjeants order their Arms at two Motions.

The Regiment is then to go through the Manual and Platoon Exercises, as before directed and explained : After which the Officers and Non-commissioned Officers return to their Posts, by Signals from the orderly Drum ; and the Battalion is then to prepare for the Firings in the following Manner :

The Grenadiers and Pioneers face to the Left.

March!

The Grenadiers and Pioneers march; the Pioneers follow the Rear Rank of Grenadiers till they come to the Rear of the Colours, when they stand fast.

The Left Platoon of Grenadiers marches to the Left of the Battalion; the Officers between the Rank of Officers and Front Rank; the Front Rank between the Front and Center Ranks of the Battalion; the Center Rank between the Center and Rear; and the Rear Rank between the Rear Rank and Serjeants.

The Right Platoon of Grenadiers marches to within eight Paces of the Right of the Battalion; as soon as they come to their Ground, the Officers commanding the Platoons order them to Hal!

And the Major gives the Word,

To the Front Face!

The Platoons of Grenadiers face to the Front.
The Pioneers to be four Paces in the Rear of the Reserve.

Prime and Load!

Rear Ranks close to the Front!

Officers and Serjeants advance their Arms, and the Officers face to the Right-about.

March!

The Rear Ranks close to the Front; the Officers at the same Time march into the Intervals, those commanding Companies coming to the Right about, and dressing in the Front Rank, and the Supernumeraries going through the Intervals of their respective Companies to the Rear.

The Serjeants at the same Time fall into the Intervals, to compleat the Files of Officers.

The Grenadier Officers, with advanced Arms, go to the Right-about at the same Time with the Officers of the Battalion.

Words of Command.

N. B. The Battalion is drawn up for the Firings, and the Officers posted as in Plate 2d. Fig. 1.

The Officers which are in the Rear to be divided, and nearest the Companies they belong to.

When the Companies are subdivided, and the Battalion formed into 16 Platoons, the Subalterns in the Rear are to take the Command of a Platoon of their respective Companies. As Captains should have the Command of Grand Divisions, the Companies are therefore placed in this Manner, that the Officers may remain with their own Companies.

If any of the Captains are absent (who according to the annexed Plan are appointed to the Grand Divisions) the next oldest Officers are to command, and the Companies to be changed accordingly.

The Colonel is advanced before the Reserve.

The Lieutenant Colonel in the Front Rank of the Reserve.

The Reserve for the Colours to be six Files.

The Ensigns with the Colours in the Center Rank, two Serjeants in their Front, and two in their Rear.

As many Serjeants as necessary are to be in the Rear Ranks to complet the Files of Officers.

The Drummers divided into four Divisions, and to take Post four Paces in the Rear of the Center of each Grand Division; the two which are Orderly, remain with the Commanding Officer.

When the Colonel is not present, the Lieutenant Colonel takes Post in the Front of the Battalion, the eldest Captain in the Front Rank of the Reserve, and the next senior Captain in the Rear of the Reserve.

N. B. When the Ranks are closed, the Major is to inform the Commanding Officer, that the Battalion is ready to go through the Firings: and then he goes to his Post in the Rear of the Right-Hand Grand Division.

The Pioneers close at the same Time with the Rear Ranks, keeping the Distance of four Paces from the Rear. The Adjutant takes his Post in the Rear of the Left.

FIRINGS

Advancing and Retreating by Files, from the Right of Grand Divisions, as in Plate 2d. Fig. II.

Word of Command.

Explanations.

*Grand Divisions !
By the Right-advance
by Files !
March !*

The Battalion is supposed to be marching, and receives the Word of Command :

The three Right Files of each Grand Division march three long Paces forward ; the Rest of the Battalion turn to the Right. Each Grand Division wheel by Files to the Left, and follow those which moved forward.

The Battalion is then advancing in 4 Columns, each of three Men in Front.

*Form the Battalion !
March !*

The three leading Files of each Grand Division stand fast ; the others turn to the Left, and then wheel to the Right ; which forms the Battalion to it's proper Front.

If ordered to retreat.

*Grand Divisions !
Retreat by Files by the Right !
March !*

The three Right Files of each Grand Division face to the Right-about and retreat ; the others face to the Right, and the Files of each Grand Division follow the three which lead.

The Battalion retreats in four Columns.

*Form the Battalion !
March !*

The three leading Files of each Grand Division stand fast ; the others turn to the Right, and wheel to the Left ; when the Divisions have completed their Wheelings, the whole Battalion comes to it's proper Front, by the Word of Command :

*To the Right-about,
Face !*

N. B. When this Manœuvre is done from the Left, the Facings and Wheelings are to be varied accordingly.

Advancing

Advancing by Files from the Center of Grand-Divisions, Plate 2d. Fig. III.

Words of Command.

Explanations.

*Grand Divisions !
From the Center
Advance by Files !
March !*

The Battalion moving on, receives the Word of Command :

The six Center or leading Files of each Grand Division move three long Paces forward, the others turn to the Center of their respective Divisions, and wheeling out successively, follow the leading Files in four Columns, each of six Men in Front.

*Form the Battalion !
March !*

The six Center or leading Files stand fast ; the Right Companies of each Grand Division turn to the Right and wheel to the Left ; the Left Companies turn to the Left, and wheel to the Right, which forms the Battalion.

If ordered to retreat, the Word of Command is given :

*Grand Divisions !
From the Center
Retreat by Files !
March !*

The six Center Files of each Grand Division face to the Right-about and retreat ; the other Files face inwards, and wheeling to the Right and Left, follow those which lead.

The Battalion retreats in four Columns, six Men in Front.

*Form the Battalion !
March !*

The leading Files halt ; the right Companies of each Grand Division turn to the Left and wheel to the Right ; the left Companies turn to the Right and wheel to the Left.

When the Wheeling is completed, the Word is given :

*To the Right-about
Face !*

Advancing

Advancing by Files from the Center of each Wing.

Plate 2d. Fig. IV.

Words of Command.

Explanations.

From the Center of each Wing, advance by Files! March!

The Battalion moving forward, receives the Word of Command :

The six Center, or leading Files, viz. Three of the Left of one Grand Division, and three of the Right of the next adjoining to it, move forward three Paces; the others of each Wing turn to their Center; then wheel out successively, and follow those which moved forward.

The Battalion advances in two Columns, each of six Men in Front.

Form the Battalion! March!

The six leading Files of each Wing stand fast; the Right Grand Divisions turn to the Right and wheel to the Left; the Left Grand Divisions turn to the Left and wheel to the Right, which forms the Battalion.

N. B. If ordered to retreat, it is done as in the foregoing Explanation, by the following Words of Command :

From the Center of Wings, retreat by Files! March!

Form the Battalion! March!

To the Right-about, Face!

Advancing

Advancing by Files from the Center of the Battalion.
Plate 2d. Fig. V.

Words of Command.

Explanations.

*From the Centre of the Battalion,
Advance by Files!
March!*

The Battalion moving forward, receives the Word of Command :

The six Center or leading Files, viz. the three Left of the Right Wing, and the three Right of the Left Wing, move three Paces forward; the others turn to the Center, and wheeling out, follow those which moved forward.

The Battalion is then advancing in one Column of six Men in Front.

*Form the Battallon!
March!*

The six Center Files stand fast; the Right Wing turns to the Right, and wheels to the Left; the Left Wing turns to the Left, and wheels to the Right; which forms the Battalion.

N. B. If ordered to retreat, it is done as in Fig. III. by the following Words of Command :

*From the Centre of
the Battalion,
Retreat by Files!
March!*

*Form the Battalion!
March!*

*To the Right-about,
Face!*

N. B. In all Evolutions where the Wheelings are long, and cannot be easily and expeditiously effected, by Reason of the Situation in broken Ground (in a Wood, or otherwise) not admitting of it; forming the Battalion, and all similar Evolutions, may be perform'd by wheeling and facing briskly by Files.

From

From the Right of the Left Wing, forming the Oblong Square by Companies. Plate 2d. Fig. VI.

Words of Command.

Explanations.

By Companies, from the Right of the Left Wing, form the Oblong Square! March!

The Battalion moving to the Front, receives the Word of Command :

The 5th, or Right Company of the Left Wing moves forward, and forms the Head of the Square; the rest of the Battalion turns to the Center, and marches by Files in the Rear of the leading Company.

Halt!

Front!

The three Companies of the Right Wing next the Center, face to the Right, and form the Right Flank.

The Right Company of the Battalion turns to the Right, closes up, and forms the Rear Face.

N.B. If the Square is to move forward, this Company keeps its proper Front; but if it is to Halt, the Company is ordered to face to the Right-about.

Reduce the Square! March!

The Company forming the Head of the Square stands fast; the six Companies which form the two Flanks, wheel to the Right and Left by Companies, close up, face to the Right and Left outwards, and march by Files opposite to their Places in the Battalion. When their own Officers give the Word, To the Front, Turn! they march up successively to their proper Ground.

The

Words of Command.

Explanations.

The Company that form'd the Rear Face of the Square faces to the Right, while the others are wheeling, and marches by Files till it covers the Companies on the Right, turns to the Front, closes up, and forms as the other Companies are directed.

Forming the Oblong Square, from a Battalion marching in Columns by Companies at Half Distance.

Plate 2d. Fig. VII.

The Battalion marching in Columns by Companies from the Right at half Distance, receives the Word of Command :

*By Half Companies,
form the Oblong
Square!
March!*

The leading Company stands fast, the next six Companies being at half Distance, wheel each from the Center to the Right and Left outwards, and by half Companies form the two Faces or Flanks of the Square; the Rear Company closes up and forms the Rear Face.

N.B. If the Square is to advance, this Company continues in this Position; if to Halt, it is to face to the Right about.

*Reduce the Square!
March!*

The leading Company moves half Distance forwards, the Files of the Flank Faces face to the Front of the Square, then wheel inwards by Files, till the respective half Companies join, and Front by Word from their own Officers; forming again a Column of Companies at half Distance.

*Form the Battalion!
March!*

The first Company on the Right stands fast, the other seven close up, face to the Left, and march by Files till they come successively opposite their Places in the Battalion, receive the Word from their respective Officers, To the front, Turn! and march up to their proper Ground.

N. B. In this it is supposed that the Battalion marched from the Right; if it had marched from the Left, the 8th Company would have formed the Head of the Square.

Forming Columns by Companies from the Center of the Battalion. Plate 2d. Fig. VIII.

Words of Command.

Explanations.

*From the Center form
Columns by Companies
March!*

The Battalion marching receives the Word of Command :

The two Center Companies move on slowly, those on the Right and Left face inwards, and march by Files, when the Officers see their Companies join'd; they give the Word of Command (tho' not loud) To the Front, Turn! and so on till the Column is form'd: The Column being form'd, the Commanding or Exercising Officer gives the Word of Command :

March!

The Battalion steps off with a quick Pace.

Form the Battalion!

The Center Companies keep moving without gaining any Ground; the other six face outwards, and march by Files to the Right and Left: As soon as they have got Ground enough to march in Front, the Officers give the Word, To the Front, Turn! and so on till the Battalion is form'd; a Signal is then given from the Center for the Battalion to move on.

Forming Columns by Grand Divisions from the Right.

Plate 2d. Fig. IX.

Words of Command.

Explanations.

By Grand Divisions form Columns from the Right!

The Battalion marches and receives the Word of Command :

The first Grand Division continues marching ; the other three Divisions face to the Right, march by Files till they successively cover the first Grand Division ; then ordered by their respective Officers, To the Front, Turn!

Form the Battalion!

The first Grand Division stands fast ; the other three march to close Order, then face to the Left, and march by Files : When the Commanding Officer of the second Grand Division sees he has gained Ground enough to form on the Left of the first, he gives the Word, To the Front, Turn! marches forward in a Line with the first Division, and orders, Halt! Dress! the other two Divisions form in like Manner.

Passing a Defilé or Bridge by Half Companies from the Center.

N.B. There are various Methods practis'd in performing this Manœuvre, among others the following, viz. Plate 2d. fig. X.

Words of Command.

Explanations.

*By Half Companies
from the Center,
pass the Defilé or Bridge!
March!*

The Battalion receives the Word of Command:

The two Center Half Companies, or Platoons, march three long Paces to the Front; the other Files of the Battalion face to the Center, and march till they are near meeting; then the Half Companies, two and two, successively front and follow those which lead, moving up as they advance to close Order.

As soon as the Center Platoons are got far enough over, they are ordered by their own Officers to Halt! and the other Platoons as they come into their Rear, respectively face to the Right and Left outwards, marching by Files till they come to their proper Places in Battalion, then Front.

When ordered to Retreat.

*From the Wings, by Half Companies,
repass the Defilé!
March!*

The Flank Platoons face outwards, and march by Files in the Rear, wheeling on the Ground they stand on; or if pressed for Time, they may face inwards, march by Files along the Rear, till the two Platoons meet; turn to the Rear, and repass the Bridge; turn outward, march to their former Ground, and Front.

N.B. It is here understood, that in passing or repassing the Bridge or Defilé a constant Fire is kept up by every Platoon (from it's forming in Battalion) while it continues to front the Enemy.

The Left Platoon of Grenadiers marches to the Right of the Battalion, and the Right Platoon to it's former Ground.

Both Platoons are ordered to Halt by their own Officers.

To the Front, Face!

The Grenadiers face to the Front.

The Colours to be sent away with the usual Form, and the Battalion then to be dismiss'd.

N. B. There are several other Manœuvres, sometimes practis'd by the British Regiments in Europe. The Nature of the Service in America is such, that they are almost, if not entirely useless to the Troops serving in this Country, they are not therefore here inserted.

In dressing Ranks, the Soldiers are to observe, to stand upright, and without stooping to cast their Eyes smartly to the Right and Left, and see the third Man's Breast, taking Care to keep Six Inches distance between the Files.

In covering their File Leaders, they must look between their Heads and the Firelocks.

In Marching and Wheeling, they must observe the same Rule as in dressing the Ranks, lift up their Feet with stiff Knees, and set them down firm without stamping, and not to drag the Feet back, but to move the Body, without shaking from one Side to the other.

In order the Divisions may wheel with Celerity, when they receive the Word March! the Flanks are to step off with a quick, but strong Pace. As soon as the Wheel is performed, a Signal is given from the Flank, on which they catch the slow Pace again.

In all Wheelings to the Right, the Men must cast their Eyes to the Left, except the Left-Hand Man: And in all Wheelings to the Left, they cast their Eyes to the Right, except the Right-Hand Man, observing to feel the Hand they wheel to, without crowding upon it.

The Performance of all Manœuvres may be done either with a slow or a quick Pace, as the Commanding Officer shall think proper to direct.
